CONDUCTING A STUDY OF COLTSVILLE, CONNECTICUT, FOR INCLUSION IN THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM

The bill (S. 233) to direct the Secretary of the Interior to conduct a study of Coltsville in the State of Connecticut for potential inclusion in the National Park System was considered, ordered to a third reading, read the third time, and passed, as follows:

S. 233

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Coltsville Study Act of 2003".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress finds that-

- (1) Hartford, Connecticut, home to Colt Manufacturing Company (referred to in this Act as "Colt"), played a major role in the Industrial Revolution;
- (2) Samuel Colt, founder of Colt, and his wife, Elizabeth Colt, inspired Coltsville, a community in the State of Connecticut that flourished during the Industrial Revolution and included Victorian mansions, an open green area, botanical gardens, and a deer park:
- (3) the residence of Samuel and Elizabeth Colt in Hartford, Connecticut, known as "Armsmear", is a national historic landmark, and the distinctive Colt factory is a prominent feature of the Hartford, Connecticut, skyline;
- (4) the Colt legacy is not only about firearms, but also about industrial innovation and the development of technology that would change the way of life in the United States, including—
- (A) the development of telegraph technology; and
- (B) advancements in jet engine technology by Francis Pratt and Amos Whitney, who served as apprentices at Colt;
 - (5) Coltsville-
- (A) set the standard for excellence during the Industrial Revolution; and
- (B) continues to prove significant-
- (i) as a place in which people of the United States can learn about that important period in history; and
- (ii) by reason of the close proximity of Coltsville to the Mark Twain House, Trinity College, Old North Cemetery, and many historic homesteads and architecturally renowned buildings;
- (6) in 1998, the National Park Service conducted a special resource reconnaissance study of the Connecticut River Valley to evaluate the significance of precision manufacturing sites; and
 - (7) the report on the study stated that—
- (A) no other region of the United States contains an equal concentration of resources relating to the precision manufacturing theme that began with firearms production;
- (B) properties relating to precision manufacturing encompass more than merely factories; and
- (C) further study, which should be undertaken, may recommend inclusion of churches and other social institutions.

SEC. 3. STUDY.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 3 years after the date on which funds are made avail-

- able to carry out this Act, the Secretary of the Interior (referred to in this Act as the "Secretary") shall complete a study of the site in the State of Connecticut commonly known as "Coltsville" to evaluate—
- (1) the national significance of the site and surrounding area;
- (2) the suitability and feasibility of designating the site and surrounding area as a unit of the National Park System; and
- (3) the importance of the site to the history of precision manufacturing.
- (b) APPLICABLE LAW.—The study required under subsection (a) shall be conducted in accordance with Public Law 91–383 (16 U.S.C. 1a–1 et seq.).

SEC. 4. REPORT.

Not later than 30 days after the date on which the study under section 3(a) is completed, the Secretary shall submit to the Committee on Resources of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate a report that describes—

- (1) the findings of the study; and
- (2) any conclusions and recommendations of the Secretary.

SEC. 5. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as are necessary to carry out this $\Delta c \bar{t}$

REVISING THE BOUNDARY OF THE KALOKO-HONOKŌHAU NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK

The bill (S. 254) to revise the boundary of the Kaloko-Honokohau National Historical Park in the State of Hawaii, and for other purposes, was considered, ordered to a third reading, read the third time, and passed, as follows:

S. 254

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Kaloko-Honokōhau National Historical Park Addition Act of 2003".

SEC. 2. ADDITIONS TO KALOKO-HONOKŌHAU NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK.

Section 505(a) of Public Law 95-625 (16 U.S.C. 396d(a)) is amended—

- (1) by striking "(a) In order" and inserting "(a)(1) In order";
- (2) by striking "1978," and all that follows and inserting "1978."; and
- (3) by adding at the end the following new paragraphs:
- "(2) The boundaries of the park are modified to include lands and interests therein comprised of Parcels 1 and 2 totaling 2.14 acres, identified as 'Tract A' on the map entitled 'Kaloko-Honokohau National Historical Park Proposed Boundary Adjustment', numbered PWR (PISO) 466/82,043 and dated April 2002.
- "(3) The maps referred to in this subsection shall be on file and available for public inspection in the appropriate offices of the National Park Service.".

There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out this Act.

REMEMBERING AND HONORING THE HEROIC LIVES OF ASTRO-NAUTS AIR FORCE LIEUTENANT COLONEL MICHAEL ANDERSON AND NAVY COMMANDER WIL-LIAM "WILLIE" McCOOL

Mr. FRIST. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 73, submitted earlier today by Senators CANTWELL and MURRAY.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution, S. Res. 73, remembering and honoring the heroic lives of astronauts Air Force Lieutenant Colonel Michael Anderson and Navy Commander William "Willie" McCool

Mr. REID. Madam President, I would like to be added as a cosponsor of the resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent the resolution and preamble be agreed to en bloc, the motion to reconsider be laid on the table, and any statements relating to this measure be printed in the RECORD, without any intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 73) was agreed to

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 73

Whereas mankind lost 7 heroes with the tragic explosion of the Space Shuttle Columbia on February 1, 2003;

Whereas the families and friends of the 7 astronauts, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the entire Nation, and people around the world who followed the historic mission will deeply miss the 7 crew members of the Space Shuttle Columbia:

Whereas the astronauts made an important contribution as models of bravery, courage, and excellence for men, women, and children around the world:

Whereas 2 of these heroes, Air Force Lieutenant Colonel Michael Anderson and Navy Commander William "Willie" McCool, are particularly close to the hearts of residents of the State of Washington;

Whereas Lieutenant Colonel Anderson was a beloved son of the Spokane community since moving there at the age of 11, and a cherished hero for men, women, and children in Washington;

Whereas Lieutenant Colonel Anderson was a hero, long before accepting the challenge of the Columbia mission, for leading a life characterized by courage, achievement against many odds, and sacrifice for this country:

Whereas the story of Lieutenant Colonel Anderson is even more remarkable in light of the barriers to success that young African-Americans in this country have had to overcome;

Whereas this remarkable story has long been shared at the childhood church of Lieutenant Colonel Anderson and throughout the
